Stay Safe While Staying in Business

SOCIAL DISTANCING TWIST KIOSK - ADA
PRICE AS SHOWN: $1,610

Social Distancing has become an essential practice for safety as well as for allowing businesses to reopen. However, like with any new practice comes a learning period and a certain level of confusion. While this can be a stressful undertaking for both your customers and employees, there are ways to make it easier on everyone.

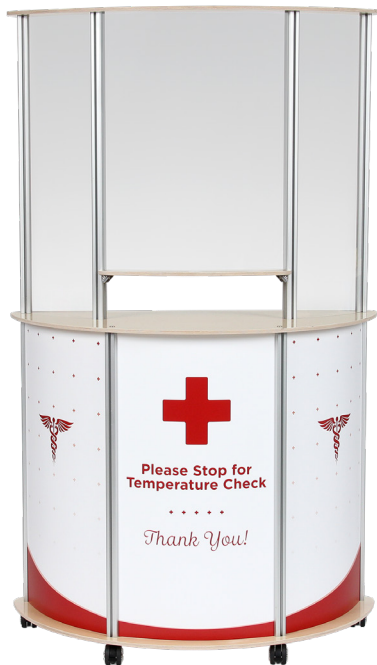

Floor decals can help guide foot traffic and manage social spacing, while freestanding signs allow you to communicate your safety goals to your customers.

When six feet of distance isn't possible, like at checkout, Plexiglass sneeze guards can protect both your customers and your employees. And hand sanitizing stations have become the new normal at entryways.

Restaurants and retail locations are now depending heavily on pick-up orders, so outdoor printed tents and flags are essential for providing messaging to customers and allowing for curbside pickup.

Our new Social Distancing Kiosks provide a protected area for employees to interact with customers, while also safely handling required transactions.
